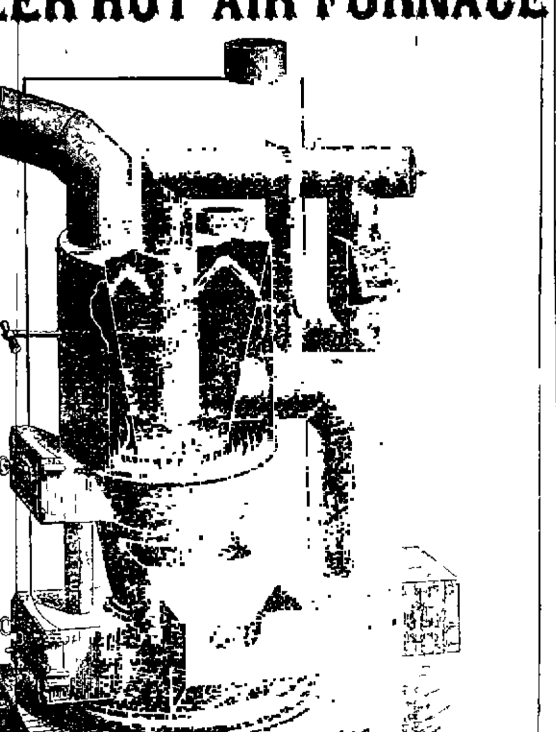
KOHLER HOT AIR FURNACE



DOUBLE RADIATING SURFACE, FOR COAL.

The Most Successful Heater Ever Sold in Our Country!

MORE THAN 1000 IN USE.

And all are delighted to bear testimony to their economy in fuel. Entire freedom from gas, smoke or dust, and perfect simplicity in management. Below we publish some of the many testimonials we have received.

We invite all interested to call at our store and examine this splendid Furnace. If desired we will hand or send our books containing hundreds of references and testimonials from solid people of the highest character. We manufacture the Furnace ourselves with great care, and warrant every Furnace to be the most perfect and reliable ever sold. For sale wholesale and retail by

WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

PORTLAND ME., April 10, 1879.
MESSRS. NUTTER BROS. & CO.

Gentlemen,—In reply to your enquiry about the No 4 Kohler Furnace you put in my boarding-house, No. 148 Spring Street I take pleasure in recommending it to the public as the very best hot air furnace I have ever had any experience with (and that is not a few). When you told me the No. 4 Kohler would heat my whole house, I had my doubts about it, and, in fact, I did not think it could be done with one furnace. My house has 43,000 cubic feet in it, a very large amount for one furnace to heat, and the more difficult on account of the way my rooms are located, all being on one side of the hall, and house five stories high, two and three rooms on a flight, also the front and back halls which I heat run up five stories into the attic. My whole house, from cellar to attic, has been thoroughly heated the coldest days we have had. I believe there is efficiency in the Kohler which cannot be found in any other heating apparatus. I can keep the heat under perfect control, and the most pleasing feature is, it heats all my rooms evenly and at the same time. I think the great secret why the Kohler heats so much more than any other furnace I have ever had is that it has a double, or two distinct hot air chambers and the inner one is so arranged that it saves a large per cent. of heat which usually passes off in the smoke pipes of other furnaces, and thereby gives double the radiation. I am very much pleased with the operations of the furnace and the way in which you set it up, also all the work has given me entire satisfaction. If you have any doubtful customers, send them to me. I shall not only be happy to show them the working of the furnace, but over my house, so they can see for themselves what the Kohler will do.

I am Most Respectfully Yours,
WM. P. SARGENT

CASTINE, ME., April 2, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gents,—I take pleasure in recommending the Kohler Furnace you put in my house last fall. It is so constructed that no gas or dust escapes either into the cellar or rooms above, and it is managed with very little trouble. I shall certainly recommend it to any one wanting a very superior furnace, and shall advise my friends by all means to examine yours before purchasing, as I have the fullest confidence it will do all you claim for it. The members of my family would cheerfully add their testimony to the comfort they have taken with it the past winter.

Yours Very Truly, S. K. WHITING.

BANGOR, April 24, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gentlemen—I have used up two furnaces in my house, and last fall put in the Kohler Furnace, which has worked the past winter to our entire satisfaction. I consider it the best furnace now in use in Maine.

Truly Yours,
LYSANDER STRICKLAND.

BANGOR, ME., April 11, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Dear Sirs,—In regard to the Kohler Furnace you put up for me last fall, I have been much pleased with its results. During the coldest days of the past winter I have had no difficulty in keeping our whole house thoroughly warmed. I think it more economical of fuel than any other I know of. I started fire in the fall and it has not been out for the entire winter.

Respectfully Yours,
GEO. L. PHILLIPS.

BANGOR, April 23, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gents,—The Kohler Furnace you put into my house last fall has proved all that you claimed that it would do. It is the greatest heater I ever saw, and what surprises me is that I get up in the morning and find the house comfortably warm, and it takes less coal than any furnace I have ever used. I do not see how it can be improved in any way.

Yours Respectfully,
CHAS. G. STERNS.

BANGOR, April 29, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gents,—The No. 3 Kohler Furnace which you set in my house last fall as a heating apparatus has been highly satisfactory. It has warmed our house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with as little fire as would be required to run a parlor stove. Our greatest difficulty, with our inexperience in running a furnace, was to hold the draft in check and prevent a too high temperature. Respectfully,

DANIEL BARKER.

BANGOR, April 12, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gents,—It gives me great pleasure to inform you that the Portable Kohler Furnace you placed in my house last fall has afforded the greatest satisfaction. It is a powerful heater, entirely free from smoke, gas, or dust, and it is with pleasure that I can recommend it to my friends.

Truly Yours,
PHILO A. STRICKLAND.

BANGOR, ME., April 8, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Gentlemen—We have used the Kohler Furnace for the past two years, and it has given entire satisfaction. We were familiar with the merits of the furnace several years before its introduction into this market, and we think it superior to any with which we are acquainted.

Respectfully Yours
D. BUGBEE & CO.

BANGOR ME., April 9, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

The No. 1 Kohler Furnace which you have put into my house has been fully tested and has given entire satisfaction. The mechanism is so complete that I can close it and the fire will die, or, by throwing open the proper draught, the whole house, which includes nine registers, can be heated so hot that it is uncomfortable. The time occupied in taking care of the furnace is but little, and the arrangements for ashes and shaking seem complete. I get very little heat in my cellar now, whereas the old furnace which was taken out threw much of the heat where it was not wanted, causing thereby a considerable loss in fuel. This furnace is very economical, since very little heat is allowed to escape except through the registers where wanted. I should advise the purchaser to examine one of these furnaces somewhere in use, and I am sure he will decide to buy a Kohler.

Yours Respectfully,
H. N. FAIRBANKS,
Gen. Agent Conn. Mutual Life Ins. Co.

BANGOR, April, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Dear Sirs,—I have had two winters' experience with your Portable Kohler Furnace, having one both at my house and store. I consider them perfection; being free from dust or gas, easily managed, and great heaters for the small amount of coal consumed. Yours Respectfully,

J. F. PATTEN.

WATERVILLE, April 12, 1879.
Messrs. G. A. PHILLIPS & CO.

Gentlemen,—It gives me pleasure to say that the No. 3 Kohler Furnace you put into my house last November has more than met my expectations. I have had no trouble in heating every part of my house in the coldest weather only using about six tons of coal. It is entirely free from gas or dust, and the large amount of water it evaporates gives a very soft and pleasant atmosphere. It is the best furnace I have ever used, and I think the best I have ever seen. Yours Truly,

S. I. ABBOTT,
Agent Lockwood Cotton Mills.

BANGOR, April 26, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Dear Sirs,—After looking around for what I called an improved furnace, I made up my mind to try one of your Kohler's No. 4, and I must say it beats all the furnaces I ever tried. I have given it some pretty severe tests as regards gas and I have not perceived one particle, and as for heating, it has kept my house comfortable all winter, only using five tons of coal, when I have used seven tons for other furnaces. It is very easy to take care of, and the shaking arrangement, whereby no dust goes up into the rooms, is perfect. I would advise all in need of a first rate furnace to take one of your Kohler's and they will never regret it.

Yours Respectfully,
JOHN A. BACON.

BANGOR, April 21, 1879.
Messrs. WOOD, BISHOP & CO.

Dear Sirs,—The Kohler Furnace No. 3, which I had of you last October, has operated admirably in keeping my house of four rooms on the first floor and four on the second floor sufficiently warm during the past winter with but very little trouble in attendance, and what has been a great improvement over any I have had for twenty-six years past, we have been kept free from any annoyance from gas, smoke, or floating ashes from the cellar. The arrangement of the valves is so perfect, handy of access, and so easily adapted that we are able to keep the fire under easy and complete control, and by a simple arrangement the dust from the ashes while shaking down the grate, is all carried into the smoke-flue, and none can escape into the cellar if either door is opened, as has been with all previous furnaces. I shall use about five and one-half tons of coal up to May 10th.

Yours Most Respectfully,
WILLIAM GALLUPE, M. D.

LEWISTON, ME., April 16, 1879.
Messrs. A. L. & E. F. GOSS.

Gentlemen,—The No. 2 Kohler Furnace you put in for me has given excellent satisfaction. It has given a large amount of heat from a small amount of coal, and does not leak gas. I consider it the best furnace out. Yours, J. C. BRADFORD,
Firm of Bradford, Conant & Co.

Androscoggin.

Wm B. Thomas' saw mill at South West Bend, was burned Thursday. Loss $1000. The fire is supposed to be incendiary.

E. F. Goss of Lewiston, on Wednesday, took to the Insane Asylum Miss Elizabeth Hancock, of Auburn. Miss H. was thrown from a carriage some time since and severely injured, and it is supposed these injuries engendered the mental disorder from which at present she is suffering.

Quite a number of Western boot and shoe buyers have dropped into Auburn within a few days and have sampled and priced and bought. The factories are having a good run and are favored with increasing orders. The manufacturers have been obliged to inform their customers that they will be unable to fill future orders at present prices, on account of the rise in stock. The total shipments the past week were, 1,753 cases, an increase of 37 cases over the previous week, and of 415 cases over the corresponding week of last year. The leather receipts during the week were 165 890 lbs.

A few days ago Mr. T. W. Robinson, of Morrill received a dispatch from Nevada bearing the sad intelligence that his brother Stillman S. Robinson, also of Morrill was killed on the 5th inst., in the Jackson mines at Ruby Hill, Nevada. The body is on the way to the victim's former home for interment.

Charles B. and B. P. Hazeltine, of Belfast, returned a few days ago from an excursion to the head waters of the Aroostook river. They penetrated the unbroken wilderness of that region to the home of the bear, moose and beaver, and the lakes and streams abounding in fish.

Recently the schooner Mazurka, of Belfast, left New York on Sunday with a load of brimstone for Boothbay. She arrived at that port, discharged, laid there over one night and arrived at Belfast on the Wednesday following, making the round trip in less than four days.

Mrs. A. J. Stevens, of Belfast, on Wednesday morning, fell from from the scaffolding of the barn, a distance of about eighteen feet, and struck headforemost on the floor. She fell between the shafts of a carriage, and bruised her limbs. No bones were broken, but the woman was considerably injured.

Otis Harriman, of Stockton has harvested 425 bushels of potatoes this season with little or no rot among them.

The Belfast Journal says Fred Howard, a sailor hailing from Boston, was before Trial Justice Rogers on Monday, on complaint of George G. Wells for stealing a watch. Wells stated that Howard came into his store late Friday evening, and after buying cigars, asked the time. Wells took out his watch, a silver one, and informed him. After a moment Howard remarked that he thought he must be mistaken in the time, and stepping forward took hold of the watch chain, after which he left. Wells then discovered that his watch was gone, and the end of the chain alone was in his pocket. Howard was arrested on Saturday, and lodged in jail. Howard pleaded not guilty, but made no defence. He was bound over to the October term of court in the sum of $500, and not procuring bail, was committed to jail.

A barn, belonging to Joel W. Haskell, of Montville, was burned Wednesday night, 8th inst., with about 45 tons of hay, grain, two carriages, mowing machine, and all of his farming tools, together with a frame for a house, trimmings, sashes, etc. Cause of fire unknown, supposed to have been set by a tramp, as one was seen around there that night. Loss from $1,200 to $1,500, partially insured.

GREENBACKISM EXPLODED—COLLAPSE OF THE "OHIO IDEE."

[From the Democratic Baltimore Sun]

"Regarded as the trial of an issue deliberately made before the people of the most important western States as to the sort of currency to be adopted by the United States in the future; regarded in fact, as the test struggle between the politicians and people on the matter of what is called the Ohio idea, the Ohio election is of great importance. Its results may shape the politics of the future, and especially of the impending contest for the Presidency in 1880 in the most salutary way. The election, which seems to have been participated in by nearly every voter of the State, shows conclusively, and it is to be hoped finally, that the inflation heresy, no matter how strongly indorsed by those who would set themselves up as champions of a great political party, no matter how forcibly buttressed by subsidiary issues of the utmost importance and urgency from constitutional points of view, cannot succeed in securing a majority of votes to support it, even in a State where the advocates of rag money were thought to be strongest. It ought to be admitted now, at least, that a majority of the people of the West as well as of the East are in favor of honest money, of the honest payment of all public debts, and of a return to the substantial coin-based currency with which our fathers were contented."

THE U. S. SENATE IN 1881

[Wash Cor N Y Times]

The importance of a majority of the Legislature of Ohio to either party at this time will be seen by an examination of the list of United States Senators whose terms will expire March 4, 1881. On the Democratic side the terms of 14 Senators will expire with the present Congress, namely Eaton, of Connecticut; Bayard, of Delaware, Jones, of Florida; McDonald, of Indiana, Whyte, of Maryland, Cockrell, of Missouri, Randolph, of New Jersey, Kernan, of New York; Thurman, of Ohio; Wallace, of Pennsylvania, Bailey of Tennessee, Maxey, of Texas, Withers, of Virginia, and Hereford, of West Virginia. On the Republican side the terms of 11 Senators will expire with the present Congress, namely Booth, of California, Hamlin, of Maine, Dawes, of Massachusetts, Chandler, of Michigan, McMillan, of Minnesota, Bruce, of Mississippi, Paddock, of Nebraska, Sharon, of Nevada, Burnside, of Rhode Island, Edmunds, of Vermont, and Cameron, of Wisconsin. The Senate now stands Democrats, 41, Republicans, 34, Independent, 1. The relative strength of the two parties at the close of the Forty-sixth Congress, deducting those Senators whose terms will expire in 1881, will be: Democrats 27, Republicans, 23. To fill these vacancies the Republicans are sure of electing 12 Senators from the following States California, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Wisconsin, which would make the Republican strength in the next Senate 35, or one more than it now is in the Forty-sixth Congress. The Democrats will elect nine Senators from the following States, Delaware, Florida, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia, which would make their number 36. The calculation leaves out, as doubtful, Connecticut, Indiana, New Jersey, and New York. Should the Republicans carry all four, which is highly probable, they would have 39 Senators, which would give them a majority of 1, without David Davis, and 2 with him. Of the four States classified as doubtful, the Democrats must carry three in order to maintain their supremacy in the Senate, whereas, should the Republicans carry three of them, and it is reasonably certain that they will the Democrats would not have a majority even with the vote of David Davis, because, in that event, the Senate would stand 38 Republicans, 37 Democrats, and 1 Independent. It was a knowledge of these facts and figures which made the Democrats so anxious to carry the Ohio Legislature, and thus secure a Democratic successor to Senator Thurman. The loss of Ohio and of Connecticut, Indiana, New Jersey, and New York, involving, as such losses would, the control of the next Senate, may cause the Democrats in the present Senate to vote solidly for declaring the seat of Senator Kellogg of Louisiana, vacant and ordering another election to fill his place.

ARNOLD'S MISFORTUNE.

Burdette, of the Burlington (Ia.) Hawkeye, has been visiting, at Fredericton New Brunswick, the house built by Benedict Arnold after he fled from this country, and he describes it as "a story-and-a-half house, with a dormer window looking out of the roof. The sides are weather-boarded, but shingled. The front door opens directly on the street, and there is a single window on either side of it." Of Arnold he says

"He lived a century too early, this man of hateful and accursed memory. Had he lived a hundred years later he might have committed treason most hateful, he might have foresworn himself in national councils, and drawn his sword against the country that taught him to use it; he might have plundered the national treasury, robbed the government of arsenals and stolen its navy yards, fought for years against the flag that waived over his birth, and then—A tainted name? A traitor's doom? An accursed memory? A haunted desolate life? Oh no, Lord love you, simple-minded patriot, nothing of the sort. He would come back and be elected to Congress, he would be a Senator, he would run the government, he would talk more loudly about the Constitution he attempted to destroy than the men who saved it, he would write books and defy public opinion, and the only thing about him to show that God hated him would be his blighted eye. If Benedict Arnold ever looks around this planet and sees how Jefferson Davis is getting along, it must make him feel that he is a martyr and a deeply injured man."

The Cincinnati Enquirer concedes that Ohio is a Republican State "of the most stalwart character," and declares that now the Ohio Democrats will look to S. J. Tilden.

The inflationists are disposed of at last. Now for the repudiationists and Solid Southern murderers. Resumption is safe, but the ballot-box is yet to be rescued, and the Treasury guarded against thieves.—Tribune.

Secretary Swank of the American Iron and Steel Association is reported to have said. "There will be more iron and steel turned out in the United States this year than in any one year in the annals of the country. When I speak of iron and steel I embrace categorically more rails, more bar iron, more plate and sheet iron, more pig iron, more Bessemer steel, and more crucible steel. What is better this large production is in answer to the demand."

Democratic folly in making a "solid South" has had its natural effect, and made a solid North. That is what the result in Ohio means. Wherever an election has been held in the North a reaction appears. Boston Herald.

Don't you remember, that "we told you so" twenty months ago?

MAINE MEN IN OHIO.

THE ENTHUSIASM FOR BLAINE.

[Special Cor. Chicago Inter-Ocean.]

THE AID FROM MAINE.

Ohio is being well paid for the help she gave the Republicans in Maine. Blaine, Hale, Frye, Governor-elect Davis, General Hall, and others have been here doing yeoman's service. The meetings Blaine has addressed have been the largest ever held in the State, and the crowd that gathered to hear him at Canton is spoken of as the largest that ever gathered at a political meeting in Ohio, and it is doubtful if there was ever a bigger one in the United States. There were twenty-three acres of people. The people of Massillon, a rival town in the same county, are trying to get up a rival meeting to greet Secretary Sherman to-morrow, but it is doubtful if they succeed. Frye was to have spoken, but has been called home to Maine, but Burrows of Michigan, and General Sheridan, of Louisiana, will be there to assist Sherman.

Blaine came into the State to make a number of speeches, with the understanding that he should speak but once a day, but there was not a single day on which he did not speak twice, and some days he made five and six speeches.

THE ENTHUSIASM OVER BLAINE

is something tremendous. As he passed through the State on railroad trains crowds would gather in advance at the depots to meet him and he would not be permitted to pass on without allowing them to hear the sound of his voice. He was introduced to his audience everywhere as "the next President," and "three cheers for the next President" were always given as the train passed on. Blaine astonished everybody by his wonderful powers of memory in these places, with which he was familiar when a boy.

When Blaine was about 17 years old he lived in this place (Lancaster) for a couple of years, in the family of the late famous Thomas Ewing, who used to be Senator from Ohio, and was the first Secretary of the Interior. Thomas Ewing, Jr., the Democratic candidate for Governor, is the son of old Tom, and was the playmate and schoolmate of Blaine in those days. They are cousins, and still warm friends, but it has galled Ewing severely to have Blaine's powerful influence exerted against him in his own home. But Blaine in none of his speeches has alluded to the personal qualifications of the two candidates. He has confined himself to national topics chiefly, and when he sent any personal shafts, they were always aimed at Daddy Thurman.

I just now alluded to

MR. BLAINE'S WONDERFUL MEMORY

He lived here, as I said, a boy of 17 years, over thirty-two years ago, yet he has recollected and called by name men whom he has not seen since that time. Old men who used to visit Judge Ewing's house when Blaine lived there as a boy have been recognized, and their names called by him, incidents related by which he has remembered them, and other phenomenal exhibitions have marked his visit here, and given great satisfaction to the people. Blaine's journeys across the State have been continuous ovations, and he has addressed more people than all the Democratic orators who have been on the stump this year.

MR. HALE

Mr Hale has been working very hard, and has worn himself out. He came after the Maine election after speaking constantly for six weeks, and has been about a month here, addressing large meetings twice a day, until he was compelled to give up, and now lies at Columbus, resting awhile, and hoping to be able to meet some engagements he made for the campaign in New York. Gen. Kilpatrick is completing Hale's appointments in Ohio.

LETTER FROM IOWA

THE ENTHUSIASM FOR SENATOR BLAINE

IOWA CITY, IOWA, Oct 13th, 1879

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

Saturday was a great day for our beautiful city. "Blaine of Maine" was here. And also were acres of sturdy Hawkeyes here, to listen to one of the most magnificent efforts, of the grandest man in American politics. I have no means of estimating the numbers that crowded the park. All the surrounding country sent large delegations, many coming in processions of wagons, with flags and music; and on the railroads came special trains from Cedar Rapids, Davenport, Muscatine and Des Moines. Hundreds were unable to get near enough to hear the speech, but they could see Blaine and that seemed to give them a great deal of satisfaction. One old fellow said he had ridden forty miles on horseback that morning, to see "Blaine of Maine."

Probably no man in the country can create so much enthusiasm in an Iowa audience or draw so large a crowd as James G. Blaine. He has long been the first choice of this State for President, and there is a general feeling that he was very unjustly set aside, in the convention that nominated Hayes. Iowa Republicanism is exceedingly stalwart, and it wants backbone in the Presidential office. During the first two years of the present administration it was regarded with impatience, and almost contempt by a large part of our people, and in the next convention they will insist upon a nominee who not only has the will, but the ability to execute the laws of the Nation, and who will see to it that the blood and treasure, sacrificed in suppressing the rebellion, were not lost in vain.

Our election will be to-morrow, and I trust you will hear a good report from us, we have an excellent ticket and expect triumphant success all along the line.

Yours, J. W. C.

Ohio has tendered Allen G. Thurman his resignation.—Boston Traveller.

If any Republican has entertained a lingering doubt as to the character and motive of the "Scratchers'" movement in New York, that doubt ought to be removed on finding that malignant renegade organ the Springfield Republican commending it and reminding its readers who are "willing to help on a good cause, that the committee's campaign fund can be aided by contributions sent to" a certain address in New York city. The "good cause" referred to is the defeat of the Republican candidate for Governor, and the swinging of the Empire State into the Democratic column for 1880. The case is stated more honestly and plainly in the following paragraph from the N. Y. Tribune:

Shall New York vote to put the Solid South in possession of the Government? That is the question. With New York Republican this fall: there will be an end to all danger of a Solid Southern ascendancy. There will be an end also to all danger of a Democratic Congress cheating the Republican party out of the Presidency, for the vote for the Republican candidate will be so large that there will be no possibility of Congress having to decide the question. If New York is doubtful, there will be doubt to the last, with a possible conflict at the end. The Republican who scratches his ticket votes in favor of this doubt and possible conflict. Let him think on it before he takes the responsibility.

The Spanish Claims Commission meet next Saturday.

From the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph — "Mr Lyford's experience in Utah enables him to give an authoritative exposition of Mormonism, and he is moreover an attractive and entertaining pulpit orator."

The Salt Lake Tribune says of his lecturing tour to California. None are better fitted to undertake this work, because in addition to a thorough knowledge of his subject, the Reverend gentleman possesses a force of character and a stirring command of language which give prevalence and persuasion to all his utterances. Mr. Lyford has gained an enviable reputation in Utah as a zealous champion of human rights, an apostle of political reform, and a preacher of the gospel imbued with the true missionary spirit."

WASHINGTON D C Oct 19 Inspector … telegraphs the Commissioner … Affairs from Denver, Colorado … and leading citizens here … affirm that the Indians must be removed from the State or exterminated … the State if not by Federal force … they say, can never be restored. … It is only a question whether the re… will be attained at once or by slow and tedious warfare.'

A Very Just Complaint

The appointment of Chas. Adams as special Commissioner to the hostile Ute Indians and the instructions he has received have called forth the following despatch from Gen Sheridan

CHICAGO, Oct 17 Gen Sherman. Gen. Merritt says in a despatch just received … to march in pursuit of the hostile Indians to grand River on the 15th and from there to Uncompahgre agency where he requests supplies be sent subsequently. Your despatch of Oct 13th was … with orders to obey the directions given, and I presume this will … Your despatch should have reached him on the 15th, Merritt and Crook and Department Commander are at a loss to know what to do and so am I.

There are 1,500 to 1,600 men at White River. Their road to Uncompahgre agency is over the main range of the Rocky Mountains and is very bad, and there is danger of being caught by the winter … should it be seriously entertained. … went to the White River agency at the … of the Indian bureau whose agent was murdered and our men killed and wounded and now we are left in the heart of the mountains with our hands tied and the danger of being snowed in staring us in the face.

I am not easily discouraged, but it looks as though we had been pretty badly sold in this business. It is folly to say that the murderers of the agent and Col Thornburg must be punished. How are they to be punished? Who is going to punish them and how long are the troops to wait at the Agency for it to be done? I will direct Crook to throw into the Agency all the supplies he possibly can as the only course left open.

(Signed) P H SHERIDAN, Lt General.

Since the receipt of the above despatch from Sheridan, he has been directed to withdraw the troops under Merritt and order them to their proper stations leaving at White River agency only a sufficient number of men to guard Government property. Gen Adams has been instructed to find the hostiles. His first demand will be that the women be surrendered and next that the … be given up. He is also instructed to meet Merritt and in case either de… he will declare the Indians … and Merritt will then pursue his own course.

WASHINGTON

The Oliver Cameron Suit

WASHINGTON, Oct 18 In court to-day on motion in the case of the widow Oliver vs Simon Cameron to dispense with printing the records the defendant argued against the motion, that she had recently been lecturing in Jersey City, was looking well, dressed well and had been introduced to the press of New York by Mayor Hopper of Jersey City. Further argument will be made next Tuesday.

NEW JERSEY.

The Blair Case.

NEWARK, Oct. 18. At 10 P. M., it was announced that the jury in the Blair case would probably not render a verdict to-night and Judge Depue sent word that no verdict would be received after that hour. The jury at 10 o'clock had been out 11½ hours.

THE PEACEFUL SOUTH.

THE GEORGIA OUTLAWS' DEEDS.

Murders, Arson, and Shameful Outrages Committed.

SPARTA, Ga., Oct. 18. Accounts of the deeds of the outlaws in the eastern portions of Baldwin county are greatly exaggerated, but the truth reveals a bad state of affairs. There are about a dozen men in the band and the trouble is personal and not political. The outlaws committed outrages on several persons, burned a gin and cotton houses and fodder stacks of Dr. Robson for the purpose of drawing him out of his house to shoot him; killed a negro for reporting them to the Grand Jury, burned a tannery and barns of Luke Robinson and whipped a colored woman and her daughter in Hancock county. The gang has taken refuge in a swamp of the Oconee and Ogeechee. The Grand Jury of Hancock county is now in session investigating the outrages and is determined to bring the perpetrators to justice. The people of Hancock county are aroused and indignant at the outrages and express a determination not only to protect white and black from further outrage but to inflict summary justice on the perpetrators. Judge Potter, the presiding Judge, will vindicate the majesty of the law throughout his circuit.

THAT ORDER.

Postmaster General Key's Opinion of It

WASHINGTON, Oct 18. Postmaster General Key in a letter to Congressman Watt at Norwich says that no postmaster will be justified in refusing to forward prepaid letters addressed to "New York city" or in refusing to deliver drop letters addressed "city." He refers to his letter to Senator Anthony on this subject. He says most of the complaints came from New England which is the most benefitted by the order of September 20th, and says as the facts are developed the stronger is his conviction that the order should have been enforced years ago. He declines to rescind the order.

The Yorktown Celebration.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18. The assembly of Governers to arrange the details of the centennial anniversary of the surrender of the English at Yorktown met for organization this morning. The Governors of Connecticut, Virginia, South Carolina, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Delaware, Maryland, and Col. Lincoln, representing the Governor of Massachusetts, were present.

INSTANTLY KILLED.

John Davis of Dexter.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 18. John Davis, of Dexter, Me., aged 30, stepped from the up track of the Connecticut River Railroad above Holyoke this evening to avoid a freight train and was instantly killed by the down passenger train.

THE WHEAT MARKET.

Great Lack of Shipping in California and Oregon—The Demand for Tonnage Unprecedented

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18. There is less tonnage in port than for years past. Wheat has advanced the past two days 15 cents per cental. The export demand is enormous, but the farmers and exporters are unable to reap the fruits of the foreign advance, owing to the scarcity in tonnage. The disengaged tonnage in port amounts to only 15,958 tons; and this is all confined to American ships, the captains of which are holding off for higher figures. This scarcity of tonnage will last 60 days. Shippers are telegraphing all over the world for tonnage, and are chartering it thousands of miles away as fast as possible. This unprecedented demand for ships has set a great quantity of tonnage this way from Australia, New Zealand and Callao, 47 vessels coming from the latter port, generally from the West Coast, and even from the other side. The chartered wheat fleet in port numbers 62,744 tons, against 34,279 at this time last year. Sailors are scarce and more than a dozen ships are lying in the stream loading with wheat, ready to clear, waiting for hands. Advices from Portland, Ore., report a similar state of affairs there.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., Oct. 20—1 A. M.)

Indications.

For New England: Generally clear weather, Northwest to Southwest winds, rising barometer and no change in temperature. Dangerous floods will occur in the Savannah river during Monday.

The Rhetorical Society at the Theological Seminary will hold a meeting this evening. Subject for discussion. Resolved that the press is doing more good than the ministry.

Patrick Cavanaugh seems to be particularly unfortunate this fall. It was only a few nights since that a large number of cabbages were stolen from his garden, on Third street, and Saturday night he lost several tons of hay by the fire.

There will be another exhibition of the endless cutter mowing machine in the field on State street to-morrow afternoon at two o clock. Should the weather be unfavorable the trial will be deferred until the first fair day.

Mr. W. M. Thayer, of the Penobscot Exchange, who with two other gentlemen has been absent several days on a gunning excursion, returned Saturday morning with a fine lot of snipe woodcock, partridges, etc.

Mr Stern has just returned home from New York with a magnificent line of European novelties which he is about to open at his well-known establishment on Main street, and the ladies are invited to call and examine them.

By invitation of the young people connected with the Essex street Free Baptist Society the pastor, Rev R. L. Howard, will deliver a series of lectures this fall. The first will take place the first Sunday in November and will be on the "Formation of Character."

Friday Governor Garcelon and Council visited the State Reform School and inspected that institution. There are one hundred and thirty-eight boys in the school and all seemed happy and doing well. They appeared fond of their Superintendent, Mr. Parker. After partaking of an excellent dinner the Governor and Council returned to Portland.

STEAMER BURNED. Our Belfast correspondent writes: The steamer Planet, of Belfast, was destroyed by incendiary fire Friday night. She was hauled up to undergo repairs and about eighteen feet of her bows had been removed preparatory to extending her in length. The engine had also been removed. The fire used up the remainder of the hull. No insurance. Loss by fire difficult to estimate.

UNFORTUNATE. R. H. Moor, of this city, seems to have met with his share of misfortunes in his life time. During the war he was wounded at four different times, but came out of the fight alive.— Since then he has broken both legs, and he recently came down from up-river with a broken shoulder. He was at work on the North Twin dam, and the last accident was caused by one of the gates giving away. His lot has certainly been a hard one.

AUTUMN CONCERT. The Sabbath School connected with the Essex street Free Baptist Society held an autumn concert last evening and the attendance was quite large. The church was very prettily decorated with autumn leaves and the altar presented a beautiful appearance, for besides the autumn leaves were the various fruits of the harvest, together with several choice bouquets, all artistically arranged. The exercises consisted of Scripture reading and prayer, by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Howard, and singing and recitations by the members of the school. The selections were all appropriate to the occasion and proved very interesting, as well as instructive.

ANNUAL SESSION. The thirty-fifth annual session of the Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, of the State of Maine, will be held in Temperance Hall, in this city, on Wednesday, October 22d, 1879, commencing at 8 o'clock in the evening. A supper will be provided for representatives and visitors, in Temperance Hall. Excursion tickets from all the stations on the Maine Central Railroad, will be furnished at one fare for the round trip; good October 21st. and 25th, inclusive.

MILLINERY OPENINGS. On Saturday of last week there were fine displays of fall millinery at Miss H. E. Seavy's store, Miss Kittredge's and Miss Nellie Daggett's. The ladies were out in the usual numbers, notwithstanding that the clouds looked rather threatening during the day. Hats and bonnets of all shapes, sizes and colors were artistically arranged which, with the numerous other articles usually found in a well regulated establishment, formed a most attractive exhibition.

THE LECTURE. The announcement that Rev. E. W. Preble would deliver a lecture on "Bunyan" as an introduction to a series of lectures on "Pilgrim's Progress" called together a very large audience at the Universalist church last evening. The gentleman is at all times a pleasing speaker, and as he handled his subject last evening in his customary manner all were highly interested, and came away feeling that they had passed a most profitable evening. The music was particularly fine, the regular choir being assisted by Mr Delaney on the cornet.

IN TOO MUCH OF A HURRY. As soon as the alarm bell struck Saturday night the new horses belonging to the fire department, were brought up for the purpose of taking out the engine, and while they were being attached to it they became frightened and started out of the house mixing things up badly. They took one of the doors on the way out and then as one of the harnesses was not properly adjusted, they turned on the sidewalk breaking the pole of the engine. The driver soon had them under control, however, and hooking them to another engine he started for the fire.

"UTAH." At the request of many of our citizens Rev C P. Lyford will deliver his lecture on "Utah its people and institutions" in Norombega Hall this evening. The Salt Lake Tribune says of his lecturing tour to California "None are better fitted to undertake this work because in addition to a thorough knowledge of his subject, the Reverend gentleman possesses a force of character and a stirring command of language which give prevalence and persuasion to all his utterances. Mr Lyford has gained an enviable reputation in Utah as a zealous champion of human rights an apostle of political reform and a preacher of the gospel imbued with true missionary spirit." The lecture will commence promptly at eight o'clock and the price of admission will be twenty five cents.

A NOVEL CEREMONY. The recently elected Governor of the Indians at Pleasant Point, near Calais, is or was, unmarried. The Indians allow no such conditions to last, so steps were taken to marry him. The process is unique. Two of the tribe were constituted a committee to get him a wife. He braided seven straws together and gave to the committee. They went to Pleasant Point and assembled all the squaws in their hall in a circle. One of the committee marched around the circle shaking a horn full of shot while the other carried the braided straw and sung a solemn song or chant. After several times marching around, the braid was presented to the maiden selected for the Governor's wife. The first choice refused to marry by throwing the braid on the floor. So the ceremony was repeated and a second choice made, and this time the fair one was willing and retained the braid, then the committee sent for the Governor to meet the destined bride in Calais. He came on the train.

FOR THE LADIES. Fashionable no… paper is now without ornament. Corduroy has come to the front as a trimming material in the place of plush which was used last season. It is also employed for short suits and children's clothing. New matinees, or house sacques, are made of pale blue, rose cream or white cloth of smooth surface, and are trimmed with a row of wide galloon in the richest Oriental colors and designs. Ruby gloves are the novelty brought into vogue by the introduction of gay colors in street costumes. These are dark shades deeper than wine or garnet colors, and not the glaring red tints that would shock fastidious taste. In Paris the hair at present is arranged in very large bands, slightly puffed, and nearly always waved, the parting descends quite low, and the back hair is disposed in braids or in twists, which generally fill in the neck, and are held by combs of all shapes and every kind of metal. For the evening these are ornamented with jewels.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S FIRE. Between eight and nine o'clock Saturday night an alarm of fire was sounded and the members of the department were soon making their way to Patten street, where the fire was located. When they arrived at the spot they found a barn owned by Patrick Keefe completely enveloped in flames, and although they put on several streams of water, the building was so far gone that it was impossible to save it. The barn contained, as we are informed, several tons of hay owned by Patrick Cavanaugh and some lumber and outside windows belonging to Mr Keefe. There was a hog in the basement, but some one in the vicinity succeeded in getting it out before the flames had made much headway. The barn was a small building and the loss was not very large, although it comes pretty hard on the owner … we understand there was no insurance. Mr. Keefe is of the opinion that the fire was set, as he saw parties coming from that direction just before it started, and one of the number was smoking a cigar.

WINN ITEMS. Our correspondent Nopen writes: Stanwood & Fuller have sold the machinery in the … shingle mill, near Winn Village to … of Bangor, and the building to … S. Grant of Winn, on whose land the buildings were. Harvey Jordan, formerly of Brewer, who with his brother … has rented for two or three years past the Hiram Hathorn shingle mill on the Mattaceunk stream in Mattawamkeag … I understand, exchanged some … property with Woodman & Ma… the owners, and is now erecting a … mill of thirty by seventy feet at the … end of the dam on that stream. A large lake feeds the stream and there is plenty of lumber in the vicinity. An Episcopal clergyman intends to make Winn his home soon. The County Commissioners will decide on the M. H. Young and Hook road, connecting South Winn and the North road in Lee, on the 22d inst. This road has been laid out, petitioned for, indicted and remonstrated against, and the Selectmen and County Commissioners at this session, it is expected, will close it up or compel Winn to build it. It is two miles in Winn and about one mile in Lee.

STEAMBOAT EXPLOSION. On Tuesday of last week the boiler in the steamer that runs on Grand Lake burst, and although there were eight persons on board at the time of the accident—four men, two ladies and two children—only two of the men were injured. As near as we can learn the boat was aground when the boiler burst and that was all that saved her from sinking, as she had a hole in her bottom and those who visited the scene of the disaster, said that it looked like an acre of kindling wood. The most remarkable part of the accident was that the floor of the engine room was torn asunder directly beneath a lady's feet and she fell into the hold, escaping uninjured. The fireman, who was one of the men injured, was thrown into the water. His face was badly cut, but he is now getting along nicely. The engineer claims that the gauge indicated an inch and a half of water when it burst but it is supposed the gauge must have been out of order. The steamer, which is entirely ruined was the property of Shaw Brothers, and was used for carrying supplies and bark, and this accident will necessitate using scows this fall, which will be a long tedious job.

TEMPERANCE. The regular meeting of Bangor Reform Club yesterday afternoon, was presided over by Paul R. Seavey. After reading the Scriptures by Mrs Pickard prayer by Prof Hamlin and opening remarks by the President, the meeting was addressed by the following members of the Club, Brothers Lincoln, Randall, Washburn, Stevens, Walker, Prof Hamlin, and by Capt Geary who said "I am young in this temperance work, signed the pledge in this hall seven months ago and then joined the Club. I have shipped for the voyage and taken for my captain my Redeemer." The meeting was further addressed by W. F. C. Wescott of the Club, who said he thanked God he could stand up and be counted in the temperance ranks. Capt Elijah Lowe made some searching remarks in regard to the violations of the prohibitory law in our city. C. A. Page then made an appeal to the audience to come forward and sign the pledge and eight young men accepted the invitation and enrolled themselves in the temperance army. During the exercises, besides the beautiful singing by the regular choir, Mrs. Hammond—better known as Hattie Rich—favored the audience with a solo which was highly appreciated. The meeting closed by singing the Doxology.

Mr Hale's Illness

The press despatch from Boston Friday afternoon which so alarmed the friends of Hon Eugene Hale proved strangely incorrect, as he has had no hemorrhage and is not dangerously ill, but is recovering from an attack of malarial fever. Mr Hale arrived at the Bangor House on the Pullman train Saturday morning accompanied by his wife, who started west as soon as she learned of his illness at Columbus, and joined him at Altoona on his way home.

Mr Hale has had quite a severe run of malarial fever, brought on by exertion during the recent unnaturally warm weather in Ohio, but while considerably weakened has not been seriously ill, and is now steadily improving. He will remain here for some days for rest under the care of Dr Brown before returning to his home in Ellsworth.

He was feeling considerably rested last evening, and a brief season of quiet under proper medical treatment will bring him out as bright and well as ever.

An Infant on a Spree

Friday morning, about 8 o'clock, a little boy aged three years, named Sanborn whose parents reside on Newbury street, … standing by the sidewalk. It was a nice light wagon to which a white horse was attached. Into the carriage the infant scrambled, gathered up the reins in his tiny hand and drove off with the assurance of a veteran. Finding the animal did not proceed at a pace fast enough to please him, he managed to draw the whip from the socket and laid on the lash with an energy that surprised Old Whitey.

The animal had good blood in him and away he went at a three minute gait causing other teams to give him a wide berth. The owner caught sight of his equipage, and started in pursuit. He might as well have tried to catch a will o' the wisp. Other teams joined in the pursuit, at the request of the anxious proprietor of the stolen team, but the little rascal managed to evade them all. At last, when the horse began to show signs of exhaustion, the child drove him into a stable on Pearl street and vanished.

The boy was in high feather with his success and he next got into a team which was drawn by a black horse, and again the former experience was repeated. Leaving this wagon he appropriated a horse and buggy that was said to be the team of Mr Sawyer, the agent of the society with the … and was driven off when a man sprung forward and seized the horse by the bridle. To him sternly this precocious infant remarked, "Let go that … or I slap oo lathe."

The man was so dumb founded at the child's brusqueness that he dropped the bridle and away went the child and team. Around and round he went, but the team was captured on Exchange street, and as the captor was about to seize the boy, lo! he was gone like a nimble flea, and slipped into Judge Goddard's carriage standing at the Post Office. But this time the crowd, which had gathered, was too quick for the infant and he was gobbled and taken before the postmaster. Male and female clerks gathered to see this remarkable child and hear him recapitulate, with infantile glee, and in baby tongue, how he seized Mr. Man's team and had a good time.

He was escorted to his home by one of the clerks followed by the admiring public in the shape of a long string of men, women and boys, and when he reached home told his mother "he had ever so nice a time with a white orse and a black 'ors, and been every where." The boy was gone from 8 o'clock till 12. In order to make sure of the child's age, the mother was asked the question, and she replied that he was only three years' old.—Portland Press.

DR. JOSIAH BRIGGS—Dear Sir—I think it is no more than justice to you and a duty to the afflicted public to write a few lines in relation to your Medicated Vapor. I read your advertisement and called to see you with my son, who was very severely afflicted with Catarrh, which had become chronic and exceedingly troublesome. I said to you I had no money to throw away but was willing to pay for anything that had merit and a prospect of a cure. Being pleased with your candid manner in explaining your method of treatment giving the names of the vegetable extracts used for Medicating, also the composition of your other specifics, which I know possess curative properties. The prescriptions you furnish to your patients free are also good and must be of great value to Consumptives and those troubled with Bronchial affections, as well as for general debility. I procured your Inhaler, Medicating fluid and Catarrh specifics. My son has been using them about three weeks and finds them agreeable and beneficial. He will continue them as directed. We have no doubt of a speedy and radical cure. Please accept thanks for the benefit derived from your valuable specifics.

Very respectfully yours,

The Committee on Fat Cattle, Bulls, and Steers, have attended to the duty assigned them, and report as follows

Your committee thought it would be more satisfactory to exhibitors to step aside from the regulations, and divide the Bulls into classes as pertaining to thoroughbreds and grades, and did so.

T. J. Knowles exhibits a thoroughbred Ayreshire bull, a herd-book animal raised in South Framingham Mass., and four years old. This bull is well gotten up, of good size, measuring in the girth six feet and six inches, and weighs fourteen hundred and twenty pounds. He takes the 1st.

G. H. Rich from the State College exhibits one thoroughbred Hereford bull, one year old. He is a splendid animal, long, straight, deeper color than usual, good size, and takes the 1st.

J. W. Hopkins a thoroughbred Jersey bull, two years old, of fair size, good build, and a beautiful animal. He takes the 1st.

John King exhibits a grade bull, three-fourths Durham and one-fourth Dutch, two years old. This animal is of large size, tall, long, deep red color, measures six feet and eight inches, and weighs fifteen hundred and twenty pounds. He takes the 1st. in his class.

David E. Jewell from the Town farm, exhibits a grade Durham bull, two years old. This is a good sized, snugly built, and tough animal, and is awarded the 2d.

B. W. Harding has a fine specimen of a grade Durham. He is of good size, straight, well gotten up, and deserves a Diploma.

E. King has on exhibition a pair of yearling steers. The girth of these steers is five feet and nine inches. They are long, straight, well built, well matched, and in respects are a splendid pair. These steers are well trained either under the yoke or without it, as was seen by the exhibition he gave in the ring. They are awarded the 1st.

E. H. Gregory shows a pair of yearling steers of good size and build. They will make a good pair for service. They take the 2d.

B. W. Harding also shows two pairs of yearling steers among a large number of farm stock he has on exhibition. These steers were not entered for a premium but the Committee award him a Diploma.

Mr. Harding deserves a great deal of credit, and is entitled to more than the thanks of the Society for the interest he has taken to make this Fair a success.

John Emery shows a bull calf, six months old, very large size, well gotten up red in color, and promises to be a good animal. He takes the 1st. in his class.

Master M. C. Hunt exhibits a handsome pair of trained steer calves, which are awarded the 1st.
